“The Priest is not his own”

Dear parishioners,

I have in mind to share with you some thoughts that I hope will be play a central role in the service that I have been called to in your parish.

During the last couple of days I have been reading the book 'The Priest is not his Own' by Fulton Sheen. By referring to the Biblical story of David and Goliath, the author makes it clear that in order for a practicing Catholic to be able to confront the Philistines(symbol of a hostile culture) he/she must overcome his/her own personal 'goliath' in order to be able to become a guiding star for the contemporary culture. There is no escape or an easier path. Our own individual 'goliath' might be a vice, ideology, prejudice, hardheadedness, unnecessary wants and desires, or even fixation with worldliness. Helping each and everyone of you to defeat his/her own closeted 'goliath' will be my primary mission.

I call on you to pray for me to have the spiritual strenght and humility to be able to work assiduously to be of service to you all.

In conclusion, let us ally turn our attention to Mary, mother of God...

Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee, show us your son's will for us and give us the courage to overcome our own weaknesses.

God Bless You All!
Fr Blake Camilleri

....time to say Good Bye !

After just serving in this parish for eighteen months, it is a premature 'good bye'. This is happening in response to the Bishop of Gibraltar's request to assist him, because of a shortage of priests, in his Diocese. Msgr Carmelo Zammit is a friend of mine and we had already worked together in the diocese, whose bishop he became in June last year. I will be taking the responsibilities of Parish Priest and Administrator, at the Cathedral.

Whilst with you I encountered a good number of parishioners who welcomed me, and quietly and humbly gave their time, work, service and cooperation for the good of the community in this parish.

My heartfelt thanks and prayers go to Fr James, clergy, members of the Parish Pastoral Council, and so many of you.

You will be in my prayers. God bless and reward you.
Fr Mario Tong

Il-maħfra hi d-don tal-akbar qawwa, hi l-akbar imħabba, dik li żżommna magħquda minkejja kollox, li żżommna milli nogħtru... Il-maħfra teħles il-qalb u tippermettilha terga' tibda mill-ġdid: il-maħfra tagħti tama, bla maħfra ma nistgħux nibnu lill-Knisja.
